ABOUT THE STATE

The handsome new library at Quebec, which is in the town of Hartford, was opened for use yesterday. There is a reading room in connection with the library.

The Rev. Clifford Jeter, B. D., of Washington, D. C., has just been appointed by the bishop of the A. M. E.
New England conference to the pastoral work among his people at Bennington.

Joel H. Gates of Burlington, for many years president of the Howard National bank in that city, remains critically ill.
He is suffering from a shock which affects the brain, eyes, and stomach.

Prescelle, the young hypnotist, who has repeatedly entertained audiences in Vermont with his feats, will probably be seen on the smaller circuits no longer.
He has been the greatest success of the season at the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, Keltia circuit, and his engagement has been extended to thirty-five weeks next season at a salary of $1,000 a week.
The metropolitan regards Prescelle as in a class by himself among hypnotists. Prescelle's home is in Barton.

A. H. Frost and son, George L. Frost of New York City, with B. W. Longway, superintendent of the Frost Veneer Seating company of Newport, have consummated a trade whereby over 1,500 acres of lumber land near Sutton, P. G., is transferred to the Veneer company. In making an estimate of this land it was found that there were 1,300 acres of hard wood that had practically been untouched. The veneer logs will be shipped to the factory here while the others will be sawed into lumber on the premises.

Headquarters for all visiting newspaper men in Burlington during the week of the Champlain tercentenary observance are being fitted up with all conveniences. One floor of the city fire department building will be devoted to this purpose. The locality is adjacent to and adjoining the place from which the literary exercises on Thursday, July 8, which is the day on which President Taft will be present and on which Ambassador Bryce will deliver an oration will be given. The outdoor faces day hall park where many principal agents of the entire week will take place. Full telegraphic facilities, including operators and also experienced in handling press matter, will be installed, and also an efficient stenographic force will be at the service of the correspondents. These facilities will be continued during the entire week from Saturday, July 3, to Saturday, July 10, and all newspaper men will be welcome at press headquarters at all times.

Midbury College Summer Session.
Dean Walter E. Howard of Middlebury college announces that sufficient registrations for the summer session of the college have been received to insure the success of the enterprise. The courses in physical education by Dr. Boies, director of physical education in the state normal school at Trenton, N. J., are proving especially attractive. Dr. Boies will give a course on anatomy in relation to physical education, and another on games and gymnastics, and play in relation to education. The courses of Miss Marion Treat of the Berkeley institute, on cooking and the preparation of foods and household economies will appeal to a good many. Miss Pierce of the Castillon normal school will have good classes in illustrative drawing, and in metal craft and pottery and plastic art.
The model high school courses in physics and chemistry, by Professors Wood and Lottridge, both experienced secondary school instructors, will be of particular value to Vermont teachers. Professor Raymond McFarland, one of the new members of the Middlebury faculty next year, will be on in the history of education in modern times and methods of teaching. A number of clergymen and Sunday school teachers will take the courses in biblical and church history and the history of religion offered by President Thomas and Dr. Hessegrave. All in all, the Middlebury program of 45 courses is an exceptionally attractive one.

The throwing open of the college dormitories for both men and women resident at the summer session is proving an attraction as well as the excellent program of lectures, including Judge Wendell P. Stafford, Bishop Hall, and Miss Julia A. Raynor. The holding of the Vermont literary institute in connection with the college session will increase its importance. No admission requirements are exacted, and thus an opportunity is afforded to all to have a taste of college life and enjoy unusual educational advantages.

WORK AT LABORATORY.
1,812 Examinations Made During One Quarter—Much Milk Below Standard.

The June bulletin of the Vermont state board of health, just issued, shows that 1,812 examinations were made at the laboratory of hygiene during the first quarter of the year.

Out of 99 samples of milk submitted from different parts of the state, 43 samples were found to be below standard, three of them being from Burlington. Out of 85 samples of food stuffs only six were found to be below standard. One sample of drugs was received, which was found to be adulterated.

Nineteen samples of liquor were received, five samples being standard, eight below standard and six with no standard.

There were 147 miscellaneous analyses, 54 being positive and 93 negative.

There were 110 samples of water analyzed, 40 samples of ground water being normal, 11 showing present pollution, 17 showing past pollution and 17 showing no pollution.

Of surface water 22 samples were found normal and three samples polluted.

There were 373 samples of sputum for tubercle bacilli, the analysis resulting as follows: Male, positive, 53; negative, 148; female, positive, 30; negative, 121; sex not stated, positive 3; negative, 15.

Of 769 cultures for diphtheria bacilli, 60 were found positive, 696 negative and 8 suspicious. Of four samples of blood for malaria all were found negative.

The bulletin contains an article by Dr. C. S. Caverly on "Infectious Diseases," an article by Dr. H. B. Clark on "Vital Statistics," an article by Dr. S. E.
Darling on "Nuisances, How Cared For," "Practical Phases of Laboratory Work," by Dr. H. B. Stone, director of the state laboratory, and an article also calls attention to the danger by infection caused by house flies.

VERGENNES' CELEBRATION.
Ancient City Is Very Much Alive to the Coming Champlain Events.

Vergennes, June 18.—The ancient city of Vergennes is very much awake to the coming celebration in honor of Samuel de Champlain. At no point is interest any more intense or local patriotism at a higher fever heat. All people, from those of public responsibility down to the young school children, are contributing in all ways in their power to make Vergennes day, Saturday, July 3, one memorable in the history of the ancient city.

All of the civic societies, including several organizations of French-Americans, will take part in the parade and they will be augmented by La Garde d'Honneur de L'Union St. Jean Baptiste de Rouland, which of itself alone is a very attractive feature of any parade. In the literary exercises a chorus of 250 voices now in special training, will be heard, and in floats and features generally classified as pageants, a large number of seventeenth century costumes and scenes will be depicted. As has been previously announced, the Hon. John Barrett of Washington, D. C., will be the orator of the day.

The money to pay the expenses of the Vergennes celebration has been raised by popular subscription. In this subscription the school children of the city have done a very creditable part. From all sources over $1,500 is available. A unique feature of the Vergennes celebration will be the fact that everything will be free. No side shows, no attractions of any kind that will require a paid admission. The full program for Saturday, July 3, in Vergennes is as follows:

4 a. m., mounted heralds will announce the dawn of the great day.
6 a. m., salute of 47 guns.
9:30 a. m., Indian war dance, tribal dances and smoking the pipe of peace by Algonquin Indians from Upper Canada.
10 a. m., mass at St. Peter's church.
11 a. m., races and sports.
12 m., band concert.
1 p. m., parade with floats and pageants.
2:30 p. m., address by Hon. John Barrett of Washington, D. C.
3:30 p. m., ball game on the fair grounds.
5:30 p. m., exhibition drill by Garde d'Honneur of Rouland.
6 p. m., band concert.
6:30 p. m., banquet with post prandial exercises.
8 p. m., band concert.
9 p. m., fire works.
